

NE PITTS PATENTED SPINDLE, being the only one that does not require a screw in the side of the knob or mounting, the use of any lock furniture without such side screws would be an infringement of the patent.